

AAUW Ballwin-Chesterfield Presents
A Free Public Policy Forum:
TITLE IX
IT'S MORE THAN JUST WINNING THE GAME
Tuesday, February 1, 2011
7:00 P.M.
Trinity Lutheran Church
14088 Clayton Road (Corner of Clayton Road and Highway 141)
Chesterfield, MO 63017

TITLE IX PROTECTS FEMALE STUDENT -ATHLETES AND HELPS THEM TO ACHIEVE EQUITY. COME TO THE FORUM AND FIND OUT:

- What changes have occurred in women's sports since enactment of the Title IX Act in 1972 and what still remains to be done to ensure equity?
- What can the school do to provide her with everything that she needs to be successful in sports?
- Where do I go to get my questions answered?
- How can I advocate for her to guarantee her rights?

Panel Presentation and Questions from the Audience

Karen Davis, (Assistant Administrator and Head Volleyball Coach, St. Joseph's Academy)

Molly Hudgins, (J.D. Professor, Lindenwood University, Chair for Sports Management With Focus on Title IX Law)

Roberta McWoods, (Head Coach, Kirkwood High School, Boys and Girls Track Teams, First Female President of Missouri Track and Cross Country Coaches Association)

Dory Smith, (Athletic Director, Villa Duchesne, Past Director, The Principia; Represents the St. Louis Area on the Missouri State High School Athletic Association Board of Appeals)

In case of inclement weather, if the Parkway School District is closed the Forum will take place on February 15, at 7:00 p.m.