Presidents' Corner

Marcia Block

What a wonderful time of the year is upon us. December gives us many opportunities to celebrate with family, friends, and fellow AAUW members. Have you made plans to attend the winter branch fundraiser with your friends? Our branch depends on the money raised at this event to cover the cost of speakers, meeting room rentals, newsletter and directory publication, STEM activities, Fall Brunch, and so much more. Read above for all the information you need to know.

A favorite Eleanor Roosevelt quote is "Do something each day that scares you." It inspired me to say yes to the role of co-president. Now we ask you to consider accepting a role as an officer for next year. Our nominating committee is looking for dynamic, energetic candidates, or maybe you have someone in mind to nominate. See the note from this committee on page 5 in this newsletter.

At the November branch meeting, 61 members contributed $4,185 to AAUW, approximately 50 per cent more than last year. Both Ballwin-Chesterfield and AAUW depend on you for the important work we do for women and girls, so thank you. Enjoy the holidays!

~Jean Elliott, Co-president

Missouri Women's Network Legislative Retreat

Saturday, January 12, 2019 Hyvee, Columbia, MO

Be part of the group of women's organization members from across Missouri who gather to develop a list of priorities for the 2019 legislative session. Be trained in Fast Democracy, a new and easier way to track the Missouri House and Senate bills. Don't miss this opportunity to help decide which bills we will support, and which bills we will work to defeat during the spring session.

Contact Pat Shores (apatriciashores@att.net) for more information.

A Note from the Finance Officer

It's a Party! is critically important to the financial health of our branch Operating Fund. The $22 portion of our dues that Ballwin-Chesterfield retains does not cover all the wonderful things we do. It's a Party! the branch fundraiser, is the way we raise the additional monies needed to maintain our high-quality programs and activities and is an every member participation event. If you cannot attend the party, please donate to the Operating Fund.

When you are buying items for the branch, please remember that we do not pay Missouri state sales tax. For reimbursement, submit a signed Reimbursement Form to the Finance Officer. Attach your receipts and cash the check right away. This form and a copy of the tax-exempt letter are on the AAUW-BC website, under "Members Only."

Annual Giving

Congratulations, Ballwin-Chesterfield!!!

We outdid ourselves this year with our contributions to Annual Giving for AAUW. This year we had 61 contributors for a total of $4,185. Last year 45 donors contributed $2,655. We succeeded in raising almost twice as much for this important collection. Your contribution applies to the Missouri Century Club and Century Club Plus, and it is tax deductible. All the money raised goes to national programs that promote gender equity for women and girls. If you did not get an opportunity to attend the November branch meeting you can still contribute by going to <https://www.aauw.org/>.

~Marian Bauer & Judy Stagoski, EOF Co-directors and Julie Triplett & Doris Nistler, LAF Co-directors

Century Club

At the AAUW annual meeting in May, members who contribute $100 in a calendar year are recognized in the Century Club. Members who contribute $250 achieve Century Club Plus distinction. The contributions made to any AAUW Fund through December 31 are credited for the total donated in 2018.

Public Policy

Thank you to all our members for participating in the various GOTV activities--attending candidate and issues forums, writing post cards and working at the polls for Election Protection; and most importantly, voting and passing Amendment 1 and Proposition 2.

Every two years, AAUW members vote on revisions to our Public Policy Priorities. The AAUW Public Policy Committee (APPC) has recommended changes. Through January 11, 2019, you can comment in support of these updates or suggest changes to the Public Policy Priorities that you'd like to see on the ballot in the AAUW national election in the spring.

- Changes that align the Public Policy Priorities with the Strategic Plan appear highlighted in yellow.
- Changes that streamline the Public Policy Priorities or are editorial fixes appear highlighted in blue.
- Changes that are responsive to member leader or APPC input, and clarify or detail our support for specific issues, appear highlighted in green.

Please take the time to comment on proposals by going to <https://www.aauw.org/resource/national-election>. Here's how to comment:

1. Read the current AAUW Public Policy Priorities and review the proposed changes.
2. Scroll through the comments that have already been posted, if any.
3. Following the prompt, type your comment in the box, and click 'Post Comment.'

You can add your thoughts to other comments by clicking 'Reply' to their submission or clicking on the thumbs up or thumbs down to indicate your preference on the comment.

The general topics for 2019 are as follows:

| February 12 | Fake News, Social Media and the Impact on Freedom of the Press |
| March 12 | Who is Pulling the Strings? |
| April 9 | The Intersection of Religion and Politics around the World |

Come early for refreshments on the lower level of the building (enter from the back), and bring a bag lunch for afterwards if you wish more conversation with the speaker. Bring husbands and friends-- all are welcome!

Eleanor Roosevelt Walk

The Ballwin-Chesterfield branch annual Eleanor Roosevelt Walk was held on October 16 in Des Peres Park. This year there was no fee to walk. Instead, registrants were encouraged to donate during the November AAUW Fund Drive, with the option of designating their donation for the ER Fund to support research on topics important to AAUW's goals and mission.

Attendees, including those pictured at left, enjoyed a brisk, sunny day in this beautiful urban park. A big thank you to all the awesome members who participated by walking, cheering on the walkers, and making donations. A total of $830 has been collected for the ER Fund as a result of this event.
