AAUW Ballwin–Chesterfield (MO) Branch

National and State Award-Winning Branch

September 2019

Vol. 40 No. 2 39th Anniversary Year

Presidents' Corner

Jean Elliott

Welcome to a new year with our Ballwin-Chesterfield branch. Jan and I are super excited about the upcoming year, especially since it will mark the 100th birthday of women's suffrage. Plans for Fall Brunch, the programs and speakers at our branch meetings, the Eleanor Roosevelt Walk, Dollars for Scholars events, and our Winter Party are already underway. Our challenge to you—don't just show up. Commit to getting involved. You'll get to know more people and have an outlet for your unique abilities.

Jan Horner

Have you considered the benefits of being a member of AAUW national? It is a top rated 501c(3). Next year, 2020, will mark AAUW's first truly balanced budget in more than a decade. With more than 170,000 members, AAUW has the strength to guarantee access to an established support system of experienced people who are motivated to get things done on current issues. A check of national's website offers up-to-date information on research, STEM, public policy, legal case support, educational funding, global connections, member leadership, and salary negotiation. This year alone, AAUW is awarding $4 million in fellowships and grants to 259 women and community projects. Approximately 43 percent of this money will support women in STEM fields. In addition, $100,000 is allocated annually to plaintiffs seeking legal redress for Title IX, equal pay, sexual harassment, and tenure violations. Have you signed up to be a 2-minute activist? Email notices will be sent to help you contact members of congress. In one of its largest endeavors, AAUW has offered free on-line courses, Start Smart and Work Smart, which will give women tools to successfully negotiate salary and close the pay gap.

AAUW serves as our catalyst for action, using new and traditional media and updating us on policies with online resources. AAUW exerts the significant political influence needed to advocate for women and girls. Meanwhile, as a local branch, we can deal with the micro issues and our particular projects. Working together, we can stay inspired, stay motivated, and stay successful.

~Jean Elliott, Co-president

The next board meeting will be September 5 at 9:30 a.m. All elected and appointed officers should attend. Contact Jean Elliott (elliotts01@sbcglobal.net) if you cannot attend.

Hospitality

To continue providing the delightful assortment of nibbles at each branch meeting, we need your help. We are looking for both hostesses and coordinating hostesses. The coordinating hostess plans the table décor and organizes what is brought to the meeting. The hostesses bring either a homemade or a purchased treat for the meeting. The months we still need your help are January, February, March, and April.

Please let Linda Roberson (robersonlinda11@att.net) or Carol Anthony (Canthony70@att.net) know if you would like to volunteer.

~Linda Roberson & Carol Anthony,
Co-directors, Hospitality

Notes from the Finance Officer

Dues

More than 150 members paid their dues early this year and many members paid their dues online. This is very much appreciated by Membership and the Finance Officer because it helps us know who is returning to the branch in time to prepare for the new year. Hundreds of names were in the drawing for the Panera gift card and Jane Arneson was the big winner.

Ballwin-Chesterfield Finances

Many B-C members worked hard over the summer to contribute to the development of the 2019–20 budget. Thanks to Marcia Block, Jean Elliott, Jan Horner, Angie Janik, Mary Jermak, Yvonne Morrison, Sue Shriver, and Leslie Wier. They conducted the second annual review of Ballwin-Chesterfield income and expenses as members of the Financial Planning Committee, which advises the Finance Officer.

A second thank you to the Budget Committee members of Marian Bauer, Jan Horner and Mersine Kallaos who approved the proposed 2019–20 budget. The next steps in approval of the budget are the board review and vote in September and the membership vote in October. All of these reviews ensure that our finances are being handled prudently, that the financial health of the branch is safeguarded, and that our choices support the AAUW mission.

National AAUW Budget

The national AAUW June Membership Matters told us that this year will be “AAUW’s first truly balanced budget in more than a decade when considering actual outlays. However, it did not come without sacrifice. We had to make some very difficult decisions, which included reducing valued staff and much needed resources.”

~Pat Shores, Finance Officer

AAUW ¡Adelante!

4th Thursday, 1:30 p.m

September 26 - Kay Meyer will lead the discussion of Just Mercy by Bryan Stephenson

2019 Eleanor Roosevelt Walk

Tuesday, October 15, 10:30 a.m.
Des Peres City Park, 12325 Manchester Road 63131

You are invited to join your AAUW friends at the beautiful Des Peres Park for our annual ER Walk. There will not be a registration fee, but donations are appreciated. Members are encouraged to make their donations to AAUW Fund. You may continue to designate your donation to the ER Walk, which supports research on topics important to AAUW's goals and mission. We plan to invite other area branch members to join us, and you may invite friends and prospective members as well. We encourage you to bring a salad to share and stay after the walk for a picnic lunch. You may sign up at the Fall Brunch and the October meeting.

In case of inclement weather, we will walk at the West County Mall and cancel the picnic. Participants may wish to form small groups to have lunch at the various restaurants in the area.

For more information contact Carol Derington (carol.derington@sbcglobal.net) or Eileen Krahman (eakrahman@yahoo.net).

Directory

Pick up your new 2019–20 Directory at the September Fall Brunch!

Your new Directory will provide you with information that you need. In the first section you will find information about AAUW and Ballwin-Chesterfield including officers, programs, interest groups, and other activities. The center section contains pictures and information about the individual branch members. Branch bylaws and policies are printed at the back of the Directory. Every member should have both a printed copy and a digital copy of the new 2019–20 Directory. A digital pdf version of the Directory will be sent by email to members for use on their devices. In addition to the new Directory distributed at the Fall Brunch, there will be two supplements, in December and March, that will be distributed during the year to update personal information.

Interest group chairs and members: if you know that members of your group will not be at the Fall Brunch, please help keep them up to date by picking up a Directory to deliver at your next interest group meeting. We are happy to help assist you.

~Joan Hewitt & Ann Patrice O'Shaughnessy,
Co-directors, Directory

Special Directory Notice

For future updates of your contact information, please notify Membership Vice Presidents Angela Janik (amjanik53@gmail.com) and Willeyne Berger (bobwilleyne@gmail.com).

Schnucks Rewards Program

Schnucks has a new reward program which supports community groups and personal accounts. If you would like to give the credit to Ballwin-Chesterfield, please present your card at the beginning of the transaction. B-C appreciates your donations.

In Memoriam Nancy Remley

Nancy was a long-time member of AAUW and the branch. She is best remembered for always having a smile and something kind to say and looking for the goodness in life. Nancy loved the game of bridge and was so much fun at the bridge table. In 2002 she was one of the 12 original members of Duplicate I, and helped to start Duplicate II, where she later served as chair. Nancy and a dedicated group of volunteers hosted the annual, and very popular, Lunch and Games event to benefit Dollars for Scholars. Nancy was a great participant in any group or activity she joined. She leaves behind five daughters and 15 grandchildren.

Spring Luncheon Committee Meeting

Wednesday, September 25, 10:30 a.m.
Saint Louis Bread Co.
14123 Clayton Road (across from Trinity Lutheran Church)

A huge "thank you" goes to all the AAUW members who attended the 2019 Spring Luncheon. The committee is delighted that you enjoyed the event and shared so many useful and positive comments with us. We want to continue to make this event successful, and your input helps us do that.

If you are interested in being on the committee for the 2020 Spring Luncheon, please join us for our first planning meeting.

Contact either of the co-chairs for information:
Jane Hemer (jdhemer25@gmail.com) or
Michele Mangnall (bmmags@yahoo.com).

AAUW Fund

The AAUW Fund Committee had its first meeting on Friday, August 9. Members reviewed the process Ballwin-Chesterfield has used for several years to communicate with members and raise funds for our national organization. Last year our branch decided to put various committees (EOF, LAF, Public Policy, ER Walk) under an umbrella group called AAUW Fund. We discussed the new model presented by national and established goals and strategies for the year.

We will be communicating more information about AAUW Fund with the branch through the newsletter and at branch meetings. Our annual fund raising will be in November.

Watch this space for important information about LAF, Fellowships and Grants, STEM, research, Work Smart, NCCWSL, and many other programs offered by AAUW National.

~Marian Bauer & Judy Stagoski
Co-directors, AAUW Fund

University Liaison (UL)

The University Liaison (formerly EOF) committee met in late July to plan for the upcoming year. We are happy to have four local scholarship awardees, two from Maryville and two from UMSL. These women are nontraditional students, 28 years old or older, who have not had the opportunity to complete their undergraduate education.

Our Dollars for Scholars events provide the funds for these women's scholarships. This year we will again be offering the popular bean soup kits, Panera Bread gift cards and the Used Book Sale. Our bean soup and Panera gift cards will be available for purchase at the September meeting. Plan to bring your used books, jigsaw puzzles and DVDs to the general membership meeting in October and support our book sale. The book sale will be held in October, November, January, February, March, and April.

Please contact Carol Greenaway (KMGCAG@charter.net) or Susan Shriver (sbs301@gmail.com) if you would like more information.

~Carol Greenaway & Susan Shriver,
Co-directors, University Liaison

Public Policy

Public Policy provides an opportunity for you to be an informed citizen and have your opinions heard. To advocate for issues doesn't mean that you must attend rallies or walk the halls of the Capitol. You can be an arm-chair advocate. Stay informed and watch out for fake news, speak up at meetings, make phone calls, write post cards, talk about your issues, and donate money. You can also turn your birthday party into a fundraiser for one of your issues or write letters to the editor.

Where can you go to check if the news is fake? Here are a few sites to try: FactCheck.org, Snopes.com, and Hoax-Slayer.com. AAUW MO will again focus on Gender Equity, Get Out the Vote, and Title IX. If you haven't registered for Work Smart online, do so. Go to salary.aauw.org. AAUW is committed to closing the gender pay gap by 2030. The crowds in the stands cheered when the U.S. Women's Soccer team won the World Cup and shouted, "Equal pay!" It's time!

Become involved. "We realize the importance of our voice only when we are silenced." (Malala Yousafzal) If you have questions, contact Karen Francis (karenbitzfrancis@yahoo.com) or Abby Roessler (abby\_mendillo@att.net).

~Karen Francis & Abby Roessler
Co-directors, Public Policy

Winter Belles

It's time to start thinking about our winter fundraiser. We will again have entertainment, a tasty box lunch, raffles, a wine and mimosa bar, a silent auction, the boutique, and food items for sale. Plan to join us on Thursday, December 12. Invite your friends, too. It's a great way to get in the mood for the holidays.

As most of you know, about two-thirds of the money we raise to support the branch comes from this event. That's why every member is expected to participate. You can donate items for sale, come prepared to bid and buy, or make monetary contributions, which is the easiest way to help support the branch. A good way to contribute is to ask merchants and service providers you patronize for gift certificates and contributions. People love experiences. How about planning a party or luncheon? Do you have a vacation getaway you could offer for a girls' weekend or family retreat?

If you have questions, please contact one of the event co-directors. If you're interested in working on the winter fundraiser, please stay for a brief meeting after the Fall Brunch.

Co-directors, Branch Fundraising
