AAUW Ballwin–Chesterfield (MO) Branch

National and State Award-Winning Branch

October 2019

Vol. 40 No. 3 39th Anniversary Year

Presidents' Corner

Jean Elliott

What a party! Over 150 women came to celebrate Ballwin-Chesterfield's first event of 2019–20. Fall Brunch Chair Eileen Krahman and her committee kicked off the year with an outstanding morning filled with decorations, entertainment, excitement, and of course food. The theme was 100 Ways to Show your Support for the AAUW Mission and since this is the 100th anniversary of ratification of the 19th Amendment, we plan to continue to celebrate throughout the year.

Jan Horner

Thanks to the successes of the past year, the Budget Committee determined that we will be able to give more to AAUW Fund at the national level and offer additional support in our community, especially for STEM Activities and university student programs (NCCWSL). At the October meeting the 2019–20 budget will be presented, and Dr. Steve Coxon of Maryville University will provide a program titled STEM Outreach.

Also at the October meeting we will have the B-C bean soup mix and Panera gift cards available, as well as sign-ups for Dollars for Scholars events and our gently used Book Sale. Regarding our meetings, if you are bringing food, or on a committee needing to set up, please arrive before 8:45 a.m. We ask that all others arrive after 9:00 a.m. The church is concerned about safety of the preschoolers and traffic around the preschool start time.

Our annual Eleanor Roosevelt Walk will be on October 15 at Des Peres Park (see page three). Donations will be accepted to help fund AAUW research. This has also become a time to socialize with friends and enjoy the fall weather.

As always, we have Dollars for Scholars events, book clubs, bridge groups, movie group, Out to Lunch, and so many other ways to get together and promote AAUW (see details in this newsletter). We know there are more than 100 ways to support AAUW. Won't you join us for a several of them? Hope to see you soon.

~Jan Horner, Co-President

The next board meeting will be October 3 at 9:30 a.m. All elected and appointed directors are expected to attend. Please contact Jan Horner (janethorner@yahoo.com) if you cannot attend.

October Branch Meeting

Thursday, October 10, 2019

Trinity Lutheran Church

14088 Clayton Road at Woods Mill Road, 63017

9:00 a.m. - Social Time & Signups

9:30 a.m. - Business Meeting

11:30 a.m. - Adjourn

STEM Outreach: Maryville University School of Education

Steve Coxon, PhD

Associate Professor & Executive Director
Center for Access and Achievement
Maryville University, School of Education

Steve Coxon, PhD, associate professor of education and executive director of the Center for Access and Achievement (CA<sup>2</sup>) at Maryville University, will speak on STEM education initiatives that engage pre kindergarten–12th grade students in STEM. His focus will be on access for North County St. Louis students from groups traditionally underrepresented in STEM, including females and African Americans. CA<sup>2</sup> programs include Children using Robotics for Engineering, Science, Technology, and Math (CREST-M) elementary math curriculum; STEM Sprouts for pre-K; and the Maryville Science and Robotics Program, which helps to fund dozens of scholarships and offers about 80 STEM classes each year.

Finance Officer

The 2019–20 proposed budget was approved by the Board in September. The next step in the approval of the budget is for the members to approve the plan at the October branch meeting. A copy of the proposed budget will be emailed to each member before the branch meeting to review. Contact Pat Shores, at apatriciashores@att.net, with specific budget questions before the October meeting.

For your information, Ballwin-Chesterfield has three bank accounts.

The Operating Fund Account, the biggest and most active account, is funded in two ways. First, by the $22 branch dues portion of the $91 dues paid to AAUW national and second, by the winter fundraiser. Operating Fund expenses include room rental and coffee for the board and branch meetings at Trinity; liability and director and officer insurance policies; an AAUW Fund donation; AAUW state, regional and national convention attendance; officer, director, and committee expenses.

The Dollars for Scholars Account is funded by the Dollars for Scholars outings that our members plan and attend. The account pays for local scholarships. Income comes from the Dollars for Scholars fee that these outings generate.

The Schnucks Account receives direct deposits from your store purchases, including the pharmacy. There are no expenses. The Schnucks rewards program now includes a choice. You may give the rewards to our AAUW B-C account, or you may keep the rewards for your personal account. Therefore, it is important that you give your card to the checker at the beginning of the transaction.

~Pat Shores,
Finance Officer

AAUW ¡Adelante!

4th Thursday, 1:30 p.m.

September 26- Debbie Mc Ward will lead the discussion of "Dopesick: Dealers, Doctors, and the Drug Company that Addicted America" by Beth Macy
Barnes & Noble, 1600 Clarkson Rd. Chesterfield
Books for 2019–20 will be chosen on September 26

2019 Eleanor Roosevelt Walk
Tuesday, October 15, 10:30 a.m.
Des Peres City Park, 12325 Manchester Road 63131

You are invited to join your AAUW friends at the beautiful Des Peres Park for our annual ER Walk. There will not be a registration fee, but donations will be appreciated. Members are encouraged to make their donations to AAUW Fund. If you wish to designate your donation to support research on topics important to AAUW's goals and mission, please make your check payable to AAUW Fund and enter Education & Training Fund (#4450) on the memo line. We plan to invite other area branch members to join us this year, and you may also invite friends and prospective members as well. We encourage you to bring a salad or some lunch item to share and stay after the walk for a picnic lunch. You may sign up at the October meeting.

In case of inclement weather, we will walk at the West County Mall and cancel the picnic. Participants may then wish to form small groups to have lunch at the various restaurants in the area. For more information, contact Carol Derington (carol.derington@sbcglobal.net) or Eileen Krahman (krahmaneileen@gmail.com).

Directory

The 2019-20 Directory is complete. Due to circumstances beyond our control, it is still at the printers. We hope to have the finished product ready for the October branch meeting. The digital version of the Directory has been sent to members. We regret that there was a delay in supplying the printed Directory at the Fall Brunch.

~ Joan Hewitt & Ann Patrice O'Shaugnessy,
 Co-directors, Directory

Winter Belles December 12

Sit back, enjoy a mimosa with your friends at the winter fundraiser and help your branch. There will be a silent auction, boutique items to purchase, Elegant Edibles for holiday entertaining, raffles, a wine and mimosa bar to get you in the mood, a yummy box lunch, and musical entertainment.

New this year: Contribute $50 and become a "Belle of the Branch." Your name will be featured on a poster and in the program. All you need to do is write a check and give it to Pat Shores, Finance Officer.

If you'd prefer to contribute an item for the silent auction, see the adjacent note from Diana Huey and Denise McKibben for suggestions. Erlaine Eltomi is the contact person for Elegant Edibles and Marilyn Beiter and Carol Derington for the boutique.

Tickets for Winter Belles will be available for $25 at the October and November branch meetings.

AAUW Fund*AAUW Research

Have you ever wondered where the money you donate to AAUW National goes? One of the areas is research, which is part of the Education and Training Fund. Research addresses the barriers and implicit biases that hinder the advancement of women by promoting equal access to education, and ensuring that education at every level is free from sex discrimination. STEM, Title IX, and Pathways to Jobs are all backed by research done by AAUW. Other examples include Alumnae Initiatives, Fellowships and Grants, and Public Policy. AAUW reports are designed to reach opinion leaders, policy makers, and the general public. This allows AAUW to be part of national conversations on such topics as the pay gap and women's economic security, sexual harassment, and other biases against women in the workplace.

Three of the most recent research reports and updates are The Simple Truth About the Gender Pay Gap, Deeper in Debt, and Broken Ladders. This research found that women are still paid only 80 cents on the dollar compared to men. Women are disproportionately impacted by student debt, carrying an average of $2,700 more debt than men when earning a bachelor's degree. Though women are the majority of employees in philanthropic and nonprofit organizations, foundations, colleges and universities, they are underrepresented in leadership positions in these fields. AAUW research serves as a catalyst for action. For more detailed information, please go to www.aauw.org, to learn more about current and planned activities and research.

~Submitted by Eileen Krahnman, AAUW Fund Committee

LAF (Legal Advocacy Fund)

LAF Express will be on hiatus during the fall. Please subscribe to AAUW's newsletter Washington Update (aauw.org/resources) published weekly on Friday when both chambers of Congress are in session.

Victory in the Courts (excerpted from LAF Express)

LAF Supported Case, Portz v. St. Cloud State University, was decided in favor of female student athletes. In early August, a judge in the U.S. District Court in the District of Minnesota found in favor of a class of female student athletes at St. Cloud State University (SCSU) who alleged gender discrimination in violation of Title IX. AAUW is proud to support the students in their lawsuit. We will continue to monitor this case if SCSU decides to appeal. AAUW hopes that this judgment will reaffirm that equal access in all areas of education must be protected and respected both on and off the field.

Update: Aileen Rizo's Pay Equity Case

On August 9, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit ordered the parties in Rizo v. Yovino to file additional briefs for the court to address the issues raised in the U.S. Supreme Court's February opinion. In the Ninth Circuit's August order, the court also asked for information on any other developments, since the case was previously considered by the full court in April 2018. AAUW will continue to support Aileen Rizo through our legal case support program and to advocate for pay equity and fairness in compensation and benefits as a means to achieve economic self-sufficiency for women.

~Submitted by Barbara Butchart, AAUW Fund Committee

Public Policy

It's time to celebrate! AAUW surpassed 100,000 registrations to Work Smart Online. Thanks to all who registered to take the course and spread the word. However, our work isn't done. AAUW's goal is to train 10 million women in salary negotiations by 2022 and to achieve pay equity by 2030. The branch Public Policy work reflects what is being done at the local, state, and national levels on advocacy to support the AAUW mission. The priorities can be found in AAUW's 2019-21 Public Policy Priorities that were adopted by members in May 2019. We encourage all members to read this.

This year, we'll focus on economic security, violence against women, Title IX, and Get Out the Vote. In October, we celebrate 25 years of VAWA (Violence Against Women Act) and Domestic Violence Awareness Month. Congress let the clock run out on these protections; programs are now being funded through temporary spending bills. The House passed HR 1585 in April to reauthorize enhanced protections; the Senate has yet to act. Our legislators are back in D.C., and women need to be protected. Contact your senators and let them hear that you want them to pass a measure similar to HR 1585. Please consider this a personal invitation to join the committee. We meet twice a year, but are always working to keep our members aware of the issues and what they can do.

~Karen Francis & Abby Roessler, Co-directors, Public Policy

Fall Brunch

Many thanks to those of you who were able to attend, serve, sing, and enjoy the Fall Brunch. We hope to carry the theme, 100th Anniversary of the Ratification of the 19th Amendment! 100 Ways to Show Your Support of the AAUW Mission, throughout the year. You can assist by writing on a post-it how you supported the mission each month. Please attach the note to the 100th Anniversary poster at branch meetings. We hope to get 100 responses!

Bean Soup Gourmet Mix

On sale at fall branch meetings

Cost: $6

Back again by popular demand, our homemade gourmet mix, featuring 15 kinds of beans, will be for sale at fall branch meetings. The mix is easy to use and makes a large pot of delicious soup. Be prepared for cool fall days and frosty winter nights or buy some bags for zesty gifts.

Questions? Contact Carol Greenaway (KMGCAG@charter.net)

Used Book Sale All proceeds will go to Dollars for Scholars.

Donate your used books! First book sale of the year at the October meeting!

Bring your donations from October through April (no collection in December). Collect your books, CD's, DVD's & puzzles and bring them to branch meetings. Members of the committee will sell items before the branch meetings, at the break, and after the meetings. The remainder will be sold to local used bookstores. All money goes to Dollars for Scholars.

What a great reason to clean your bookshelves...and then fill them again with new purchases!

Cost: $40

Sunday, Oct. 13 at 2 p.m.

Kranzberg Arts Center, 501 N. Grand at Olive

"Upstream Theater is excited to present Mat Smart's compelling play The Agitators, which takes us straight into the thunder and lightning of the 45-year friendship between Frederick Douglass and Susan B. Anthony. After meeting in Rochester in the 1840's, these two social activists became great allies and, at times, great adversaries. Their shared struggle sometimes put them at odds—but their friendship endured, and their legacy continues to inspire." Information provided by Upstream Theater

To attend, contact the sponsor, Sage Taber (sagemo@aol.com)

Legally Blonde (the play)

Cost: $25

Sunday, October 27

Washington University Performing Arts, 6465 Forsyth Blvd., St. Louis, 63130.

Doors open at 1:30 p.m. for a 2 p.m. start time.

Carpooling from Trinity at 12:45 p.m.

Join us to go to Washington University Performing Arts Department's production of this musical comedy. It will be presented in the Edison Theater. There is free parking on the campus, but we will also carpool from Trinity.

A Walking Tour of The Missouri Botanical Garden

Cost: $22 for Garden members
$28 for non-Garden members

Thursday, October 31 at 11 a.m.

Missouri Botanical Gardens, 4344 Shaw Blvd, St. Louis, MO 63110

For car-pooling, meet at Trinity Lutheran Church parking lot at 10 a.m. If you plan to drive on your own, meet at the garden entrance at 10:45 a.m.

The fee includes tour guide, admission to the garden, and Dollars for Scholars donation.

Lee Ann Grush, garden docent and a very special Mah Jongg friend, will lead a walking tour with wonderful commentary, The Historical Garden Tour. This tour is 90 minutes long and covers approximately 1.3 miles of the garden. It includes the Sachs Museum and the Tower Grove House.

Wheelchairs are free to borrow with a valid driver's license; motorized scooters rent for $25. The Sachs Museum is wheelchair accessible, but Tower Grove House is not.

Plan to join in the fun at the optional lunch after the tour at Three Monkeys Restaurant, 3153 Morganford Rd at Juniata, St. Louis, MO 63116, at approximately 1 p.m. Menu: threemonkeysrestaurant.com
