Presidents' Corner

Jean Elliott

Hello March! How happy we are to see you—ushering in spring. I've always thought spring was the time of plans and projects. It certainly is true for AAUW Ballwin-Chesterfield. March is designated Women's History Month. Most of the activities this month and the rest of the year center around the celebration of the passage of the 19th Amendment that occurred 100 years ago. I'll point out a few of Ballwin-Chesterfield's plans and projects, knowing that this newsletter contains more detailed information.

Jan Horner

At the March meeting, the nominating committee will announce the 2020–22 candidates for officers. The election will be held at the April branch meeting. Remember that nominations can be made from the floor, as long as the nominated person has agreed.

Spring Fling, an IBC event, will be held on March 28 at Greenbriar Country Club. Reservation forms are on the branch website. I hope to see many of you there. Plans are also underway for our branch's Spring Luncheon at Whitmoor Country Club. Many of our members will be honored for their contributions to the branch. The food is always superb and it's a wonderful way to be with good friends.

This year AAUW will hold a state conference and a regional conference, both of which will celebrate women's suffrage. May 2 is the state convention in Columbia, Missouri and the regional convention will be held June 17–20 in the Quad Cities area. Attendees from 13 states will come together to learn, to share, to celebrate. So exciting!

I haven't even mentioned the great Dollars for Scholars events that are being planned. Especially enticing is the exhibit on Women's Suffrage at the History Museum in Forest Park beginning April 1. That's a can't miss opportunity.

I hope you find time to attend some of these activities. Don't forget to take walks, plant flowers, and pull the dandelions.

~Jean Elliott, Co-president

The next board meeting will be March 5 at 9:30 a.m. All elected and appointed officers should attend. Contact Jean Elliott (elliotts01@sbcglobal.net) if you cannot attend.

March 26- Lynne Roney will lead the discussion of Myth of the Nice Girl: Achieving a Career You Love without Becoming a Person You Hate by Fran Hauser.

Membership Renewal for 2020–21

The AAUW year begins anew on July 1, 2020, thus your current membership expires on June 30. The national annual dues are $59. AAUW MO dues are $10 and Ballwin-Chesterfield branch dues are $22, which totals $91 for the upcoming year. Fifty-six dollars of the national dues are tax deductible.

The preferred method to renew is online. B-C members will receive a personalized renewal email on March 16 from memberinfo@aauw.org. Open the message and click on "click here to renew." With one click, pay dues with your credit card. It's simple, safe, and efficient. The alternate method is to send your $91 check to Pat Shores. Write your check to AAUW. Do not put B-C on the memo line.

The Finance Officer and the Membership Vice Presidents are offering an early dues payment incentive. Members who renew from March 16 to April 30 will get three chances to win a $30 Panera gift card. Members who renew from May 1 to May 31 will get two chances to win the gift card. Members who renew from June 1 to June 30 will have one chance to win a Panera gift card.

Finance Officer Pat Shores will be available to discuss the dues renewal opportunities at each branch meeting.

Branch Honoree Recognition (Named Gift)

One of the nicest things we do as a branch is to recognize the efforts of members who have gone over and above in their efforts for Ballwin-Chesterfield and AAUW. Nominees shall be considered on the basis of their service, leadership, and significant commitment to the AAUW mission and the branch.

Each member is encouraged to submit the names of those she thinks should be considered. Please include specific information about the individual's qualifications, and submit these to Marcia Block, (mhblock@sbcglobal.net) chair of the Branch Honoree Committee, by March 12.

Program Committee Meeting

Interested branch members are also welcome in this vital aspect of branch life.

Please RSVP to Mary Jermak (marygjermak@att.net) or Sage Tabor (sagemo@aol.com).

STEM*Promoting Gender Equity in Tech

In 2017, AAUW and Dell convened a summit on Gender Equity in Tech, hosting major U.S. tech companies and researchers to share knowledge and best practices to recruit, retain, and advance women in the engineering and computing professions. Out of this came Playbook on Best Practices: Gender Equity in Tech, downloadable from <https://www.aauw.org/>.

Why the summit? As noted in the playbook, “While girls are studying and excelling in science and math more than ever before, this dramatic increase in educational achievement has not been matched with a similar rise in the representation of women working in these fields. Today, women make up just 6 percent of S&P 500 CEOs, 12 percent of the engineering workforce, and 25 percent of the computing workforce.”

Employers play a critical role in improving the representation of women in STEM fields. The playbook comprises three sections that detail actions organizations can take to promote gender equity in tech. Actions are based on research takeaways, proven strategies, and promising industry practices.

1. Support an Inclusive Talent Pipeline: Positively change the perception of stereotypes about girls’ and women’s abilities to achieve in engineering and computing, to influence girls’ career choices.
2. Build Equity into your Recruiting DNA: Add women in the workforce by methods such as using neutral language in job postings and having objective criteria for deciding who to hire.
3. Create and Sustain a Winning Culture for All: Adopt strategies that include defining and measuring specific goals towards gender equity, providing professional development, and addressing implicit biases.

As the report states, “Organizational change can occur with intentional effort.” Measurable success is possible.

~Submitted by Susan Fenwick, Co-director, STEM Committee

STEM Act Passed in Washington

President Trump has signed Senate Bill 767, called the Building Blocks of STEM Act. It modifies several National Science Foundation programs that provide grants to institutions of higher education and nonprofit organizations to support science, technology, engineering and math (STEM) education research focused on early childhood. This will alert young girls that the STEM fields are open to them to pursue a career. While the focus has been primarily on high school to encourage young women to enter STEM fields, this bill encourages girls in middle and grade school to look at science, math, and engineering as possible careers.

~Submitted by Barb McQuitty, Co-director, STEM Committee

# MeToo*How to Fight Sexual Harassment

New research shows that the harm caused by sexual harassment can last a lifetime, compromising a woman’s physical and mental health and reducing lifetime earnings. What should you do if it happens to you or a loved one?

Here are three tips from AAUW’s report:

Understand your rights—Consult your employee handbook or policies for a helpful resource.

Keep Notes—Put complaints in writing. Note the time and place of each incident, what was said and done, and who witnessed it.

Tell Someone—If you don’t feel comfortable talking to your supervisor, report the behavior to HR or the person responsible for workplace complaints. Consider contacting the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC). Even if you decide not to file a charge, you can speak to an EEOC counselor for insight and resources. If you do, you generally must do so within 180 calendar days from the date of the discriminatory activity.

Workplace Laws:

University Liaison (UL)

Our Dollars for Scholars events continue to provide the funds for our non-traditional female scholarship recipients at Maryville University and UMSL. If you haven't yet organized a Dollars for Scholars event, please consider partnering with a friend and host an outing. The Used Book Sale also provides funds for these scholarships. Please continue to collect and donate your used books, jigsaw puzzles, and DVDs over the next few months. Buy some books, return them, and buy some other books.

We are currently lagging in our fundraising efforts as compared to last year. All money raised this year will be used for next year's scholarships. We appreciate the generosity of the Ballwin-Chesterfield members.

~ Carol Greenaway & Susan Shriver, Co-directors, UL

IBC/NCCWSL

Can you help?

At the Spring Fling each year we have a raffle to raise funds for IBC and to send young women to the National Conference for College Women Student Leaders (NCCWSL). This year the general theme is "Woman on the Go." Ballwin-Chesterfield will be putting together two tote bags. Our board has suggested the themes of "Going to the Beach" and "Going on Vacation/Staycation" as our contributions. We will need two suitable tote bags and items such as books on women's history or issues, toiletries, books of puzzles, sunglasses, gift cards, and anything else that might fit the theme. Contributions are needed! Please get them to Marcia Block by the March 12 branch meeting. She will assemble the tote bags.

Public Policy

We celebrate Women's History Month and International Women's Day on March 8. We celebrate because it's an opportunity to tell herstory: acknowledging women who made herstory, recognizing our accomplishments, talking about what we've done and can do, and inspiring future generations. We should celebrate the 38th state passing the ERA, the first all women spacewalk, the longest stay in space by a woman, and AAUW being awarded another $500,000 Coca Cola Grant for Work Smart, with an emphasis on reaching colleges and Historically Black Colleges and Universities. AAUW's Gender Policy Agenda highlights our priority issues for the 2020 election season: economic security, education, and foundational rights. Check your voter registration statutes at www.vote.org and remind your family and friends. The Missouri Presidential Primary is March 10. Remember to:

1. Contact your state legislators to oppose SJR 38 that would change Clean Missouri, the amendment voters passed by 62% in 2018;
2. Contact your national legislators to support legislation that ensures equal pay for equal work and HJR 79 and SJR 6 to remove any time limit on ratification of the ERA;
3. Take Work Smart Online to be able to talk about AAUW's goal of closing the gender pay gap by 2030!

~Karen Francis, Director, Public Policy
